North Vietnamese Sending New Negotiator to Paris

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

PARIS (AP) — The disclosure that Hanoi is sending one of its key officials to the U.S.-North Vietnamese peace talks has raised speculation that North Vietnam may be planning some tactical shift in its bargaining position.

A North Vietnamese spokesman said Friday that "one of our responsible people is coming to Paris." He was identified later as Le Duc Tho, a member of the central committee and politburo of the Communist Party of North Vietnam.

The is viewed by U.S. experts on North Vietnam as an impor-

2 Marines Freed From Red Capture

SAIGON (AP) — Two American Marines were freed from enemy captivity today by South Vietnamese troops in the northern part of the country.

Military spokesmen identified the two freed men as Sgt. Albert J. Totter and Cpl. Frank C. Iodice but could not immediately give their units nor their home towns.

The pair were in enemy hands for about two months, spokesmen said.

They were freed early this afternoon by South Vietnamese troops 12 miles east of the city of Hue and turned over to U.S. Marine officers. Both were reported in good physical condition.

The details of how they were released were not immediately disclosed.

Students in Rome Copy Paris Rioters

ROME (AP) — The streets of Rome were littered with charred automobiles, shattered glass and dried blood today in an echo of the chaos that has rocked France.

The disorder here began with student seizure of the University of Rome Friday and swelled into a major street riot in which demonstrators, mainly students, battled helmeted police with clubs and makeshift fire bombs.

The riot was confined to a small section near the French Embassy and was quelled in little more than an hour, but it touched off fears for more of the same as leftists in Rome followed the pattern of the rebellion in France.

The students who occupied the university put up a poster at the main entrance reading: "Rome like Paris."

The massive demonstration outside the French Embassy, which included burning President Charles de Gaulle in effigy, was spurred by the powerful Italian Communist Party and by pro-Communist Socialists.

The Rome upheaval came as Italy functioned under a lame duck government after parliamentary elections which strengthened the Communists and weakened the Socialists.

The Socialists were divided on whether to bolt the Center-Left coalition with the Christian Democrats. Some Socialists said the coalition had robbed the party of its progressive image.

Moderate party members said a pullout could play into Communist hands and lead to the kind of crisis now convulsing France.

Scores of persons were injured when police and demonstrators battled with clubs and fists in front of the beautiful 16th century French Embassy building and in streets around the quaint Campo dei Fiori-Field of the Flowers—fruit market. Only a handful of those taken into custody were charged immediately, however. They included three students and a tradesman.

The rally had started as a gathering of a few hundred workers.

About 5,000 youths quickly took it over and marched on the French Embassy, where Italian police were waiting.

tant member of the ruling group in Hanoi.

The talks between U.S. Ambassador W. Averell Harriman and Xuan Thuy of North Vietnam are in recess until Wednesday. Tho, who is probably traveling by way of Moscow as other members of the Hanoi delegation have done, presumably will be in Paris by that time.

Vance Returning

Meanwhile Cyrus R. Vance, deputy to Harriman, is expected back here Sunday from Washington, where he reported to President Johnson on the talks. He left after the fifth meeting last Monday.

The questions about Tho's mission which interest U.S. officials here are whether he is bringing any new instructions to Thuy on new maneuvers by the North Vietnamese in the conference.

Friday's meeting, the sixth since the talks started three weeks ago, produced no movement toward agreement by either side.

U.S. spokesman William J. Jordan said, however, the meeting was marked by spontaneous discussion—slightly more informal talks and less speech-making. But the result was the same, he said, no action on escalating the war.

Social Touch

Another development which some Americans found slightly encouraging was that midway in their session of almost four hours, the two delegations took a refreshment break. They were served tea and soft drinks by the French staff at the International Conference Center.

This was the first time such a social touch had been injected. In their formal encounter across the conference table they continued to exchange proposals and counterproposals on the issue of reducing the level of conflict in Vietnam.

Thuy said that if Harriman persisted in demanding some concession from North Vietnam for ending all attacks on that country they would eventually put out a joint communique in which the U.S. would pledge to stop its attacks and North Vietnam would pledge to abstain from attacking the United States.

Harriman retorted that the suggestion was "fantastic." But he said it could be rewritten to deal with "real issues."

Father Gets Death Penalty

Florida Fruit Picker Convicted in Poison Death of Daughter

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — An illiterate fruit picker was sentenced to death in the electric chair Friday after being found guilty of first degree murder in the death of his oldest daughter, one of seven children who died of insecticide poisoning.

An all-white jury of 11 men and one woman found James Richardson, 31, guilty of sprinkling a lethal dose of parathion in a meal of hogs head, beans, rice and peas eaten by his seven children.

After the guilty verdict was handed down without a recommendation of mercy in the death of 8-year-old Betty Jean Richardson, the Negro fruit picker was charged with murder in the death of his second child, Susie.

Defendant Bewildered

"You shall remain in the state penitentiary until you shall be put to death," said Circuit Judge John Justice.

Richardson, wearing handcuffs over the sleeves of the white sport coat he wore every day of the trial, was walked across the street to the county jail. He is expected to remain there at least until his attorneys file a motion for a new trial, which could take as much as 15 days.

State Atty. Franky Schaub said Richardson stayed up until 4 a.m. on Oct. 25, 1967, to lace food the children were to eat that day with the deadly poison.

PARIS (AP) — Government officials believe that tension has eased and the worst of the French crisis has passed, although settlement of the crippling two-week-old general strike still seemed some way off.

For repair efforts, President Charles de Gaulle's new government had Maurice Couve de Murville, described as De Gaulle's most trusted minister, in charge of finance. Several ministers accused of mishandling the crisis were gone.

To guard against violence, De Gaulle has quietly strengthened military and national police units in and near Paris.

Military Call-Ups

The Defense Ministry said Friday it soon would publish a decree authorizing the call-up of army, navy, air force and national police reserves.

It said the order could involve "a limited number of specialists and technicians needed for the functioning of installations essential to economic life."

The tension seemed to dissipate after De Gaulle's dramatic radio address Thursday, when he ordered general elections but threatened to use force if government authority was challenged.

Trade union leaders who had been demanding a change of regime in return for an end to the strike retreated to their original economic demands for higher salaries and shorter work weeks.

The Communist Party and its trade union arm, the General Confederation of Labor—OGT—announced they would participate in the elections June 23 and 30 for a new National Assembly.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The emergence of new leaders in the Poor People's Campaign has been accompanied by statements that the demonstrators will accelerate their protests in the halls of Congress and government buildings.

"We are shifting gears and making changes," said the Rev. Andrew Young, executive vice president of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which organized Resurrection City, the shantytown encampment near the Lincoln Memorial.

"It is time the main focus of action should shift from Resurrection City to Washington, D.C. to Congress and the government agencies," Young said Friday.

In the absence of SCLC President Ralph David Abernathy, out of town for the day, Young said Hosea Williams would now spearhead demonstrations.

Two new figures who led a demonstration Friday at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare were J. T. Johnson and Leon Hall. Like Williams, they are laymen. Previously the prominent figures in the campaign were clergymen.

The Rev. Jesse Jackson, who led some demonstrations in the last two weeks, was relieved as "city manager" of Resurrection City. No replacement was announced.

Young said Jackson will recruit new demonstrators in large Northern and Southern cities who would move into the encampment if Congress tried to oust the 2,000 or so now living there. The eventual goal is to have 3,000 persons encamped in the A-frame huts.

"In case those crazy folk in Congress try to run us out, we want to make sure we have another 3,000 people ready to come in," Young said.

He specifically mentioned New York City; Wilmington, Del.; Richmond, Va.; Baltimore, Md.; and Philadelphia as cities in which "action cadres" would be set up as a reserve.

About 500 demonstrators marched on the Department of

DeGaulle at Work

De Gaulle, beginning his 11th year in office today, was expected to pass the holiday weekend hard at work in his Elysee Palace office.

De Gaulle's new Cabinet already had moved slightly to the left with the entry of three men from the left wing of the Gaullist movement. Chief among these was the new justice minister, Rene Capitant.

Break in Strike

The biggest change was Couve de Murville's move from the Foreign Ministry to finance, in an exchange with Michel Debre. It indicated a change in De Gaulle's policy emphasis from international prestige to domestic concerns and gave Couve de Murville the job of repairing strike damage which economists estimate now runs to at least $2.4 billion in lost production alone.

One factor reducing uneasiness in Paris was the first new

Hosea Williams Leading Intensified Demonstrations In Government Buildings

Health, Education and Welfare Friday.

They threatened a sit-in unless Secretary Wilbur J. Cohen personally answered their demands.

Cohen's eventual appearance drew cheers, and the demonstrators listened while he spoke and handed a 35-page document to Williams which he said was a government answer to an "economic bill of rights" recently demanded by the Rev. Mr. Abernathy. Cohen said Abernathy had made some good points in his demands for improved government programs for the needy.

Friday clear weather helped dry up the ankle-deep mud in Resurrection City.

The campers resumed building the plywood shanties for the first time since heavy rain turned the campsite into a quagmire a week ago.

Crash Fatal to Woman From Wittenberg

Viola Sensenbrenner Killed in Collision In Waukesha County

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A 67-year-old Wittenberg woman, Mrs. Viola G. Sensenbrenner, was the first traffic fatality of the Wisconsin Memorial Day weekend. She was killed when a car driven by her husband, Michael, 72, collided with another in Waukesha County.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Methodist Church, with the Rev. Milton Leisman officiating. Interment will be at Forest Home Cemetery at Wittenberg.

Schmidt Funeral is handling arrangements.

Traffic deaths on state highways reached 13 Saturday morning, with Sunday's home-ward rush still to come. They were the 1968 total to 435, compared with 339 on this date in record 1967.

Last year 15 persons died on Wisconsin highways during the Memorial Day weekend.

Richard D. Hebert, 19, rural Tripoli, Oneida County, was killed Friday when his motorcycle collided with a car five miles north of Tomahawk.

Another motorcycle fatality came Friday when Pamela Marth, 14, Sturgeon Bay, died of injuries suffered Thursday in an accident that killed Patrick D. Howard, 19, rural Sturgeon Bay. Their cycle collided with a car in Door County.

Elmer C. Konoেকে, 56, of Sheboygan was injured fatally early today in a two-car accident on a country trunk intersection about two miles northwest of Sheboygan.

Deep Submersibles to Hunt For Scorpion Near Azores

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — The Navy has flown two deep submersibles and an advanced diving system to the Azores to explore the shallow waters near the last reported position of the missing nuclear submarine Scorpion.

The deep submersibles, Link-Perry and Deep-Diver, and the advanced diving system, Adm Mark 4, were sent Friday to survey the ocean bottom south of the Azores where the Scorpion last radioed her position May 21.

All three can explore the ocean floor to a depth of more than 1,000 feet. The Scorpion and her crew of 99 were due to arrive at her home port here Monday at 1 p.m. and was declared missing on Wednesday.

Sweeping Eastward

Meanwhile, destroyers and submarines are sweeping eastward along the 2,400-mile projected course of Scorpion from Norfolk to the Azores. The Navy said the armada is expected to reach the Azores June 7.

While the armada searches a 15-mile-wide track, three patroling visual observation flights along a 100-mile-wide track on the same course.

The focal point of the search is now around the Cruiser Banks, with depths as shallow as 100-feet, and the Irving Banks, 360 miles south of the Azores. The Scorpion's projected course would have taken it within 30 miles of these "sea mounds," or underwater ridges. The nuclear submarine Gato was scheduled to arrive today in the area of the sea mounds to rendezvous with the deep submersibles.

"Second Logical" Spot

Vice Adm. Arnold P. Schade, commander of the rescue force, told newsmen Friday that the area off the Azores was the "second logical" spot to search since no clues to the Scorpion's whereabouts had turned up in the ocean approaches to Norfolk.

Asked by a newsmen if the Navy had ruled out the possibility that the Scorpion was on the continental shelf, Schade replied: "Yes, I think that we can say that."

The admiral also conceded that "with each passing hour the situation is certainly grimmer."

Navy divers determined Friday that an underwater hulk lo-

Senate Approves Suspension House Likely to Fight Over Equal Air Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House fight looms over a plan to suspend equal-time provisions of television-radio law for the 1968 presidential campaign.

The Senate, without dissent, has cleared a resolution to authorize the temporary suspension. Under this plan, the Republican and Democratic presidential nominees, along with the third-party candidate George C. Wallace, would be able to debate without networks and stations that carry the program required to give equal time to splinter candidates with relatively insignificant support.

"I will certainly do whatever trying to create a grand show I can to prevent it," said Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif., ranking Democrat on a House subcommittee considering the plan. "And I think there is substantial support for my point of view."

The Senate-adopted resolution would suspend the equal-time requirements for major presidential television stations flexibility to candidates from Aug. 31—after decide how much time to allocate to nominees other than the Democrats and Republicans.

A resolution similar to the one pending in the House was adopted by Congress in 1966, allowing the debates between Richard M. Nixon and John F. Kennedy.

The Senate-passed version of requirements for major presidential television stations flexibility to candidates from Aug. 31—after decide how much time to allocate to nominees other than the Democrats and Republicans.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

In Willemstad, on the Caribbean Island of Curacao, is the oldest synagogue and the oldest Jewish community in the Americas. Mikve Israel, which means the Hope of Israel, was founded in 1654, and the present synagogue was built in 1732. Rich in history, it houses many artistic treasures, including a hand-wrought silver Hanukkah menorah that has been used for 250 years.

Visitors recall Mikve Israel as the synagogue whose floor is covered with sand, for symbolic as well as practical reasons. Symbolically it represents two things—the desert on which Israelites camped during their long journey from slavery to freedom and also God's traditional blessing to the patriarchs that their descendants be as numerous "as the sand which is upon the seashore." From a practical standpoint, it muffles the sound of footsteps on the wooden plank floor during services.

To Curacaoans and visitors of all faiths this historic house of worship is a symbol of the constancy of a great faith.

18 Have Died in Great Lakes

CLEVELAND (AP)—Eighteen boaters have died on the Great Lakes since the season opened in April, Rear Admiral Charles Tighe, commander of the Ninth Coast Guard District, reported Friday.

Tighe expressed "alarm and deep concern" over the casualty rate. "If it continues," he said, more than 80 boaters will die on the Great Lakes in 1968, compared with 58 last year.

A majority of the deaths were of persons not wearing any type of life-saving device, although these devices were available in the boats, the admiral said.

2 Nights of Calm In Louisville May Let Guard Leave

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — National Guard authorities determine today whether two nights of relative calm in Louisville's West End warrant starting a gradual pull-out of riot-duty Guardsmen.

Nearly 2,000 of the troops remain on the perimeter of the predominantly Negro section where looting and rioting have occurred since Monday night.

Friday night was the least troublesome evening of the week. Mayor Kenneth Schmied called it "about normal for a Friday night" in terms of incidents and arrests.

City police said several fire bombs were thrown but no serious damage resulted. Arrests totaled 21, compared with 63 Thursday night, which also was much calmer than the first three nights of trouble.

Guardsmen were absent for the second consecutive night from the trouble area except to escort fire department units answering alarms.

The area was patrolled by police and special Negro marshals, to try to ease tension and disperse crowds as part of an agreement with city officials that Guardsmen would be withheld from the area.

Some white West End merchants complained Friday that looters and rioters took advantage of the troop withdrawal to do their worst damage.

Let's EXPLORE YOUR MIND

By Sylvanus M. Duvall, Ph.D. and Evelyn M. Duvall, Ph.D.

When badly adjusted, they often do. Women who have never had anything but physical charms often become embittered as they find themselves, and mental attitudes from childhood on, so that man learns to love rather than to hate.

Do grown men sometimes act like babies?
Yes — No —
Yes One often sees a lecturer rock from side to side in the same tempo of a heart beat. He comforts himself in the tension of facing an audience by rocking much as he did as a baby, only in more grown-up and acceptable ways. We once knew a prominent man who moved his lips in a sucking motion whenever he was thinking hard about some especially vexing problem. Sucking a pencil, or chewing gum, even smoking may hark back to earlier satisfactions associated with the lips and mouth. Even grown men revert to earlier moments of pleasure when the going gets rough. Why not?

Man is his own worst enemy!
True — False —
True. No other creature poses such a threat to man's survival as man himself. Not only do men fight each other — in interpersonal relations, as well as in wars between nations — but also a man fights himself in hurtful ways. Even more difficult is curbing the self-inflicted pain that man brings on himself. He feels guilty when he does something he should not have done, and so punishes

Combined Force Drives Attackers From Saigon

By GEORGE ESPER Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops supported by planes drove back Viet Cong attackers on Saigon's northeastern fringes today, but across town some guerrillas held out, despite U.S. big guns blasting their hideouts to rubble.

South Vietnamese planes bombed and strafed residential areas 2½ miles northeast of Saigon's center. Civilians already had left the area.

Associated Press photographers Al Chang and Henri Huet said the Viet Cong retreated, but Vietnamese marines had to battle two hours to wipe out an enemy rearguard fighting a delaying action in mangrove swamps. Three marines were killed.

Sporadic Fire
As darkness approached, sporadic fire continued, indicating guerrillas still were in the area. Their number was believed to be perhaps 100 men.

Earlier, the government marines assaulted the bottom floor of a villa which had been held by about 40 guerrillas despite government troops occupying the upper two floors. But the guerrillas had slipped out in the night and fought for a time from a treetline 100 yards away.

Government troops reported killing 133 enemy soldiers in the last 24 hours in the Saigon fighting. Government losses were reported as 18 killed and 57 wounded.

American troops reported killing 69 enemy soldiers in four battles within a 30-mile radius of the capital. Initial reports listed seven Americans killed and 41 wounded.

Cholon District
In southwestern Saigon, in the Cholon Chinese district, guerrillas attacked at 4 a.m. as the U.S. and South Vietnamese police shifts changed.

Some guerrillas slipped out when the government declared a 20-minute truce to allow several hundred refugees to flee the embattled five-block-square area. But 30 or 40 Viet Cong held out despite a U.S. 57mm recoilless rifle team firing nearly 100 rounds into their firing positions.

The main battle area was about three miles west of the Presidential Palace and military reports said snipers had moved to within a mile of the palace. The enemy troops had made the deepest penetration into the city of their third wave of attacks on Saigon, which began last Saturday.

Alcoa Pact Might Guide Industry

NEW YORK (AP) — The giant Aluminum Co. of America and the United Steelworkers of America have reached agreement and signed a contract which could set a pattern for the aluminum industry.

Other unions and major producers holding separate talks were unable to reach similar settlements before the midnight Friday deadline, however, and there were scattered walkouts today although some talks continued.

The other unions, the United Auto Workers and the Aluminum Workers International Union, set up picket lines at some Alcoa and Reynolds Metals Co. plants in several states.

A steelworkers spokesman said the new three-year Alcoa pact provided an average wage increase of 55.9 cents an hour plus improved pensions, hospital insurance and unemployment benefits and a new $30-a-week vacation bonus.

Otto K. Warnecke, 69, 400 N. Appleton St., was divorced this week by Johanna Warnecke, 59, 209 Kenneth Ave., Kaukauna, on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Tipsy Driver Fined $200

Charles Wismer, Neenah, Loses License for Year

WALPACA — Charles J. Wismer, 19, 870 Higgins Ave., Neenah, pleaded guilty to driving while under the influence of intoxicating beverages and was fined $200 and costs Friday in Municipal Justice Court.

In addition to the fine Wismer's drivers license was revoked for one year.

Wismer was arrested by state police at about 1 a.m. May 20 south of Waupaca on U.S. 10 after he crossed the center line of the highway and sideswiped a northbound car being driven by a Waupaca man.

Killed in Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three more Wisconsin servicemen have been killed in Vietnam, the Pentagon said Friday.

They were identified as Alvin Pte Robert E. Zeske, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Zeske of Milwaukee; Marine Lance Cpl. Nikola Babich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Babich of Milwaukee; and Marine Lance Cpl. Dennis D. Wehrs, son of Mrs. Marie S. Wehrs of La Crosse.

Charges Reduced Youth Gets Probation For Morals Offense

Marvin R. Harris, 17, 304 Clintonville girl, which occurred State St., New London, was near Bear Creek.

Six Youths
The girl told authorities at the time she was "abducted" by six youths in the parking lot of a Shiocton beer bar, and was assaulted in the back seat of their car.

Outagamie County Judge Nick F. Schaefer, after accepting Harris' guilty plea May 17, continued the case to Friday to allow time for a pre-sentence investigation.

Harris' attorney, in asking for probation, said the youth had never been convicted of a crime and had been dismissed from high school as a result of this incident. The attorney said his client had been drinking at the time of the April 11 incident, and added that Harris was going to seek psychiatric help.

Submersibles Hunt for Scorpion cated by sonar in 180 feet of water 70 miles off Cape Henry, Va., was a World War II submarine, possibly German. The hulk had a gun mount in front of its conning tower—something the Scorpion lacked.

Schade said the Navy, Coast Guard and the Federal Communications Commission are investigating a mysterious voice broadcast heard Wednesday by a Navy patrol aircraft and six surface ships. The broadcast used the Navy's code name for the Scorpion, Brandywine.

The admiral said at least eight pleasure boats or fishing vessels using the name Brandywine were in that area of the Atlantic. He said it was possible that anyone might have made the broadcast since the submarine search and rescue frequency is near the ship-to-shore frequency.

Your Problems

Ann Calls Woman Color Blind; Tells Her to Put End to Affair

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am a career woman 41 but I look 10 years younger. I was divorced at age 29 after a most unfortunate marriage. (It wasn't another woman, it was another man.)

Six years ago I fell in love with the lawyer who handled my divorce. He is 50, handsome and well-known as an attorney. He told me he and his wife have lived as brother and sister for the past 10 years. He never speaks of his wife or their children but has assured me he will be divorced within three years (when their youngest child graduates from high school). I have promised to wait.

The problem is this: We never go to first-class restaurants or even to a movie or the theater. I am getting fed upon bac-alley hiding places.

He has never introduced me to anyone he works with. I am attractive, well-dressed and I make friends easily. I cannot understand why he is ashamed to take me out in public. My friends who have met him have hinted that I am being played for a fool. What do you think?

— Gray Skies

Dear Skies: Same old bag

of bones. Dearie: married man ducking his wife and relatives and colleagues and anyone else who might recognize him. The first tipoff should have been his breach of his professional ethics. Married lawyers are not supposed to dally with clients.

Your signature indicates that you are color blind. The skies are not gray, they are pitch black — and the ceiling is zero. Put an end to this back-alley affair before you find yourself permanently soaked in.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: Recently you visited in our city and the newspaper write-up said you had an extraordinary memory for names. Please, please tell me how you do it.

All my life I have been plagued by my inability to remember names. It has caused me a great deal of embarrassment and whenever it happens I tell myself I must be added in the head.

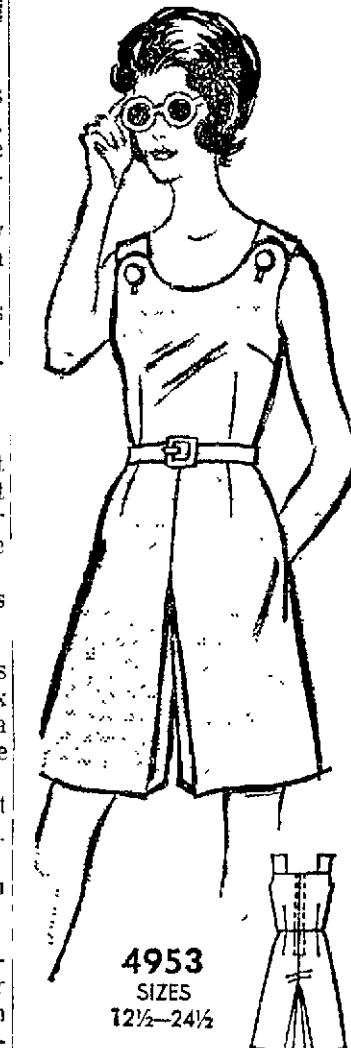

Please, Ann, share your secret with those of us who need this kind of help. — Forever Grateful

Dear Forever: The principal reason people do not remember names is that they don't bother to listen to the name when they are introduced. If you don't get the name on introduction, ask. No one will be offended. It is in fact a compliment because it shows interest.

Use the person's name when you speak to him and associate the name with a specific characteristic. Example: If the woman's name is Mrs. Fuerstenberg, and she's a doll, remember that Mrs. Fuerstenberg would come in first in a beauty contest. If the man's name is Mr. Power and he has a strong jaw, remember that Mr. Power has power. It needn't make sense — just so it serves as a memory book.

Lord deliver me from morons who make no effort to remember names and then try to excuse themselves by saying, "But I never forget a face."

No Baseball for Milwaukee

We sympathize with Milwaukee over losing out in the battle for the last two remaining expansion franchises in major league baseball. It closes the door on any chance of a National League team for that city.

Many will probably be persuaded that Milwaukee's suit against the National League following the Braves' removal to Atlanta still hankered with some National League owners and persuaded them to favor San Diego and Montreal. But Milwaukee's basic problem is its very limited television market for baseball with other major league teams in Chicago and Minneapolis.

At one time the Packers faced this same disadvantage but the National Football League wisely solved the problem by pooling television revenues and sharing them equally among its teams. Baseball has never faced up to the problem and for this reason alone franchises in disadvantaged television markets will always be weaklings.

The only possible solution for Milwaukee now is to entice the Chicago White Sox to move to that city. From the television angle it would make some sense, since the Sox now have to share the Chicago market with the Cubs, and by moving to Milwaukee they could probably retain at least a share of the Chicago market plus Milwaukee.

The crowds the Sox have been drawing in Milwaukee for exhibition and regular season games are also encouraging. But in this day and age the number of fans a pro team can reach on the tube is at least as important as those who come out to see the games.

The Menominees' Right to Hunt and Fish

We feel good about the United States Supreme Court's decision that the Menominee Indian tribe has the right to hunt and fish on its former reservation lands in Menominee County, unimpeded by state regulations.

The question before the court was whether the rights granted the tribe in a federal treaty in 1854 had been ended when Congress passed the termination act in 1954. The court ruled that the treaty governs and that its provisions could not be abrogated by Congress.

There is no question but what the United States government in the past treated our native Americans very badly. If treaties were not abrogated, they at least were largely ignored. But in more recent years the Indians have been taking their treaty claims into the courts, and in the main they have been successful in re-establishing those rights.

The decision will produce some problems for conservation authorities in Wisconsin. It is worth noting that in a previous decision the Supreme Court did uphold the right of a state to impose reasonable restrictions on fishing rights "in order to protect the fishery." But in the main we are happy that the treaty between our government and the Menominee tribe will be honored.

Big City Jungles

Senator Robert Byrd told the Senate last week that Washington is "a city gripped by fear, a veritable jungle where decent citizens must cower behind drawn blinds at night for fear they may be robbed, maimed, raped or murdered."

The Senator is not far wrong and not only about the nation's capital.

The increase in violent crimes in the large cities has been gradual but steady. For several years foreign visitors have noted that they are far safer in the large cities of almost every other nation of the world than in the United States. In Washington bus drivers are refusing to carry any change on their evening runs and some cab drivers refuse to work at night. City parks — and this is true in many smaller communities too — are left to the muggers. Women in particular who must work at night are in danger of attack.

The trend has been variously blamed upon the violent nature of our history, Supreme Court decisions which may make convictions more difficult, inadequate and poorly trained police forces, breakdowns of the family, racial discrimination, bad movies, comic books, whiskey and drugs. Undoubtedly some of these factors contribute to the crime increase.

But there has developed in this country a contempt for the forces of law and order, for those in authority and an even more serious lack of respect for the rights of others, even to doing them severe bodily harm. And for this we probably do have to look at the failures of those in authority always to uphold the right, the official discriminations which made demonstrations and even riots the only appeal, certainly the failures in our churches, schools and homes to get across the Golden Rule if nothing else.

Saying all this does not find a quick and easy solution. There must be increases in police forces and a constant improvement in the quality of those forces so as to protect the defenseless. There must be developed better programs for instructing those who get none at home. Government and industry must cooperate to demand responsibility. Somehow the cynicism of the younger generation toward standards and principles, often because of the hypocrisy of some of their elders, must be overcome.

Too many Americans have spent a complacent twenty-five years since World War II while the violence simmered beneath the surface in our own country. Recognizing not only that it could happen here but that to a large extent it has, may shake us into action. But improvement may take just as long as has the disintegration.

It is disgraceful that so many annual spring trips of school children to Washington were cancelled this year. We may indeed be in for conditions every bit as dangerous as those for both Indians and white men on our nation's early frontiers.

Admiral Took Rank Loss to Be Raider

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1942 Dieppe raid that prepared the Allies for the D-Day invasion of Normandy was a study in paradoxes, among the biggest being the case of the officer who demoted himself in order to serve.

The tale, and the raid itself, are recounted in the upcoming TV special "Rehearsal for D-Day" — June 4, ABC.

Vice Adm. John Hughes-Hallett of the British navy, the man who suggested the implausible raid on the German-held port of Dieppe, wanted to participate in the amphibious training for the action — on the Isle of Wight, off England — but because most of the commandos were Canadian, he realized he'd be resented.

So the admiral assumed, incognito, the identity of a Canadian army private and trained undetected alongside the 6,000 men.

When the historic raid had passed and the allies had broken the Nazi hold on Europe with the invasion of Normandy, Hughes-Hallett quipped to his military colleagues: "I went from a private to an admiral in one day."

James Bodoh, four letter man during his high school career in track, football and basketball, also was an outstanding athlete his freshman year in the same sports at college after a tour of duty in the U.S. Navy. After his death in an automobile accident, the high school trophy was established in his memory.

Donald Manier served as parade chairman for the Memorial Day event in Appleton the previous day. His co-chairman was Jerry Arens and parade marshals were Chief Warrant Officers Joseph Kerrigan and Orme Stach, of the National Guard. Other officials were Howard Waggoner, Mayor Clarence Mitchell, Fred Gehrke, Edward Kies, George Knister, Thomas Weber and Frank Comella. Gehrke was program chairman for services at the cemetery.

The Outagamie County Council for Retarded Children re-elected all its officers at the annual meeting that week. They were Mrs. Gilbert J. Mauthe, president; Mrs. Florian DeGroot, vice president; Mrs. William Bonzelet, secretary; Florian DeGroot, treasurer, and Mrs. Kermit Meltz, recording secretary.

Background Map
Resources of Appalachia Can be Used at Home to Revitalize Area

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Appalachian region lies in a long, narrow, curving band extending from northern New England to central Alabama. It is an area of moderately high altitudes surrounded by the central and coastal lowlands of the continent.

And it is a recognized problem area in the national economy.

Encompassing some 185,000 square miles with 17.3 million people in 12 states, it is a depressed area whose per capita income is only 68 per cent of the national average.

The economy of the area declined sharply after World War II and lack of adequate access to the region and difficulty of traveling within the area hindered the many governmental and private agencies interested in developing the region, as did an inability to utilize fully the natural resources and the chronic unemployment resulting from changing technology in mining and industry.

Five years ago, the President's Appalachian Regional Commission was established to develop a comprehensive plan for the economic recovery of the area, which is rich in natural resources, particularly coal, oil, gas and timber.

Coal mining has been a major industry of the area for many years, providing about two-thirds of the nation's bituminous and all of its anthracite coal production. But automation and a declining demand for coal reduced coal industry employment by 64 per cent between 1951 and 1961. Now about 5 per cent of the area's total employment is engaged directly in mining.

In an effort to revive the poverty-stricken area, Interior Department specialists urged "rebuilding its economy by investing the wealth of its resources right at home."

People's Forum
Let's Get Mad About This Highway Toll

Editor, The Post-Crescent:

It is strange, isn't it? Those things against which we choose to campaign are so easy to tear down I suppose if our State Legislature were to discuss whether or not LSD should be legally used in Wisconsin, it would take ten minutes for them to pass a law stating that it was illegal, immoral, and destructive to the lives of people.

Why can't we move with similar speed in doing something about the terrible conditions regarding traffic safety because of the drinking driver? Driving while under the influence of alcohol is as illegal as the use of LSD. Yet, when twenty people are killed on our highways on one weekend (May 17-18-19), there is not near the urgency to do something about it that there might be in other situations and under other conditions.

Maybe we are going to anesthetize ourselves to this problem as completely as we have to the needs of the poor and the black people in our society. Can we comfortably sit back and be unconcerned as one thousand of our people are killed on our roads year after year? Do we have to have some member of our family killed on the highway in an accident before our voice will be raised in a demand for action?

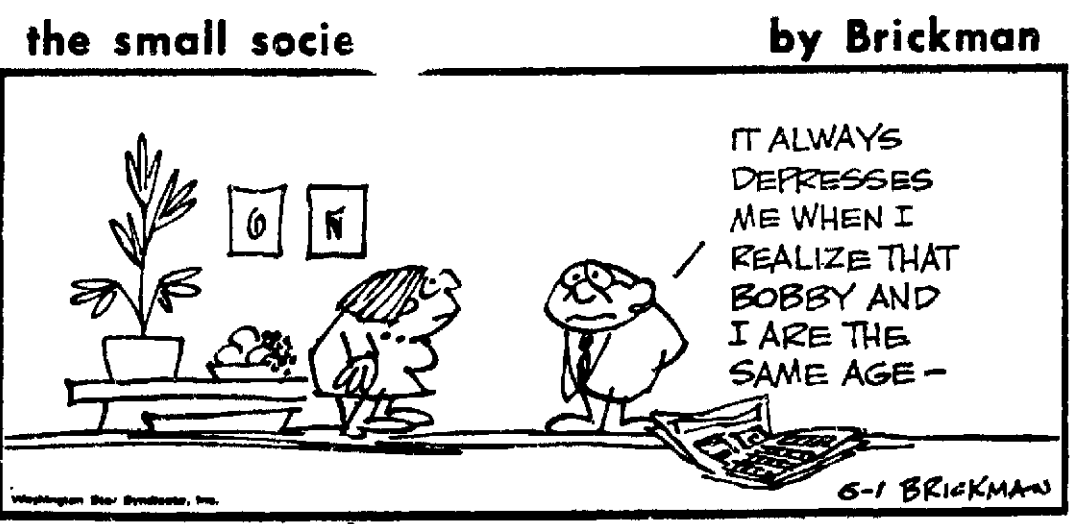

I don't think the problem will be solved with some of the "stopgap" measures that have been suggested. It will require sweeping action on the part of every level of government and law enforcement. It will not be solved by raising the minimum beer drinking age. Sure, these and other measures may dent the total slightly, but they will not eliminate the problem. That will come as each citizen becomes irate at the number we permit to be murdered on our state roads... and then in turn lets his own driving habits be influenced. Until we call it as we see it, we will only deal with expressions of the problem and not the problem itself. Until we realize our individual responsibility for the problem, we will be "hung-up" in the cycle of non-action.

Wisconsin Report
State GOP Ticket Reflects Value of Legislative Training

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON — At intervals over the years, these dispatches have asserted the thesis that the Wisconsin Legislature is the fertile incubator of Wisconsin political leadership, perhaps to a greater degree than in most of the states of the country.

It has been a long time since the idea has been effectively documented as in the formation of the ticket of the Republican Party, which can be fairly called the majority party of the state on the the party of the state on the genuine party "drafts" in recent Wisconsin history.

LEONARD STARTED EARLY

When Jerris Leonard of Milwaukee as a youngster of 25 years turned up in the Assembly 12 years ago, some of the watchers on the sidelines tended to regard him as somewhat ostreperous and loquacious, in a chamber which contained dozens of men old enough to be his father.

But the eager young man after a term or two proved himself as an agile, attentive, intelligent lawmaker. Equally important, he has the combative qualities that are essential in the hard life of a politician in a truly competitive two party state. Friend and foe quickly learned that Leonard could handle himself with exceptional pose and articulation.

The same kind of a success story can be told about Sen. Robert Warren, the first term Brown County legislator who now has his party's endorsement for attorney general. He is probably a favorite to win in the fall the subordinate state office that has been shown to be the most valuable of all of them in terms of exposure and opportunity to rise higher up the ladder. It is no secret among Republicans, Lt. Gov. Jack Olson included, that Warren is regarded by his backers as future gubernatorial material.

OLSON AWAITS CHANCE

In the strict sense, the lieutenant governor probably is not a legislator. His primary function is that of presiding over the State Senate. Probably there isn't a working Republican in Wisconsin who does not know that Olson intends to spend the next two years, if he wins re-election to the No. 2 job in the fall, campaigning for the governorship. Yet he would not be "available," in the sense of the word as the politicians use it, except for his experience in the legislature and the exposure to the issues and problems of state government that it has given him.

Harold Clemens of Waukesha County was appointed state treasurer recently, and has now been endorsed for nomination and re-election to a full term. There are scores of men in Republican politics who could handle that job, and would probably have been glad to get it. Clemens got it because in 12 years in the legislature he won the respect of his colleagues to the extent that he lost the speakership on the Assembly last year by a single vote. He then demonstrated that he could lose gracefully and work in political harness with the winner without recriminations.

Wyngaard

basis of its recent control of the state government, in preparation for the new elections in the fall.

Of the six men who have been endorsed — and almost surely will be nominated by the voters in the September primary — five launched their political careers and learned the political trade through service in the legislature

ZIMMERMAN IS EXCEPTION

The one exception is scarcely that, moreover, Robert C. Zimmerman is one of the staples of the Republican state ticket and will probably hold his job as long as he wants it. But it is worth noting that he "inherited" his own career, in a quite literal sense, from his father who had held his office before him. The father started his own political service about four decades ago by serving in the legislature. Without that decision, the Zimmerman phenomenon might never have occurred.

When youthful Warren Knowles, an apprentice lawyer in St. Croix County, won a seat on his county board in the long ago 1930's there was little to indicate that he would one day become the governor and one of the best known public men of his state in his lifetime. Almost surely he would not have had such political success, except that he was persuaded shortly thereafter to run for the State Senate. He rose quickly in that house and won the respect and affection of men within and without the system. He then became a lieutenant governor, and then was boomed for the governorship, in one of the few

Paris Often Scene Of Peace Meetings

WASHINGTON — More than any other city, Paris can claim the title, "Treaty Capital of the World."

Since the discussions ending the Seven Years' War in 1763, Parisians have been hosts to countless conferences. The tradition continues with the present Vietnam talks in the old Majestic Hotel, the National Geographic Society says.

Many historically significant pacts are known solely as the "Treaty of Paris" or the "Peace of Paris." One of the earliest, the 1782 treaty ending the American Revolution, was negotiated by an American team that included a precocious 15-year-old, John Quincy Adams.

Friendly Occupation

As a conference center, Paris witnessed its busiest years at the close of the Napoleonic Wars. The peace period began amicably.

Occupation forces from Russia, Prussia, and Austria entered the city without bloodshed and quickly discovered Paris' charms. Prussian Field Marshal Gebhard von Blucher, the good-natured hero of the Battle of Lutzen, lost one million gold francs in a single evening at No. 113, the city's leading gaming house.

"It's so like a party," a hostess commented, "it's a pity it's a conquest."

Persuaded by the skillful Charles Maurice de Talleyrand Perigord to be magnanimous in the Treaty of 1814, the Allies refrained from demanding financial reparations.

Versailles Treaty

The aura of goodwill faded when Napoleon escaped from Elba, only to be defeated at Waterloo. The Allies, no longer inclined to leniency, imposed a staggering indemnity of 700 million francs in the Second Peace of Paris, signed in 1815.

More than a century later, a distinguished assembly gathered in Paris for the Versailles Peace Conference. President Woodrow Wilson came in person to promote a League of Nations.

The conferees from 27 nations also included British Prime Minister David Lloyd George, French Premier Georges Clemenceau, and Italian Prime Minister Vittorio Orlando. The treaty with Germany was signed. A generation later, Adolf Hitler destroyed the peace and the League collapsed.

Shot Stops Summit

More recently, a Paris summit conference on Germany ended abruptly in 1960 after the Soviet Union shot down an American U-2 airplane.

Parish talks usually are held in opulent surroundings such as the Palaces of Versailles and Fontainebleau. The present negotiating site offers a slightly less elegant environment.

The Majestic, now the International Conference Center, was considered one of Paris' finest hotels when it was completed in 1908. In the early days of World War II, it provided office space for the French Information Ministry. German occupation forces later commandeered it for an army headquarters.

Part of the 1944 plot by German officers against Hitler probably was planned in the Majestic.

Although shadowed with the grime of Paris, the gray stone structure near the Arc de Triomphe retains a quiet dignity befitting its role in international diplomacy.

Rheumatoid Arthritis Child Needs Early Care

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: Last year when getting my 3-year-old daughter ready for bed I noticed that her right knee was very swollen.

It has been diagnosed as rheumatoid arthritis. She has never been sick otherwise except for mild colds.

Her leg was in a cast for several weeks, and she is on medication daily. The doctor also recommended daily use of a whirlpool. The swelling has gone down and the limp is almost gone.

How will this condition affect her as she grows? Is rheumatoid arthritis common among children this age? What are the chances of its disappearing, or will it worsen? — Mrs. E.R.

It always seems to come as a surprise to people that children can have rheumatoid arthritis — but they can. I wouldn't want to say it is, "common," but it is far from rare. It can attack people at any age, from infancy to old age, although the greatest number of victims encounter it — for reasons unknown — in young, vigorous adulthood.

Rheumatoid arthritis, as distinguished from osteoarthritis, or gradual degeneration of joints, is an inflammatory disease, of causes not yet known. Effective treatment is possible; indeed, it is urgent, and everything in your letter indicates that your daughter received, and is receiving, the type of care needed.

I regret that I cannot give you a positive answer as to what the future holds in store. Rheumatoid arthritis is not a predictable disease in some ways. It can come and go, or in some cases it can disappear and never return.

Since your daughter's case is under control, and being watched, you should not expect it to interfere with her growth, but you (and later she) must always be on the alert for any sign of recurrence.

If the arthritis becomes active in the future, the important step is to recognize it as early as possible and begin treatment to prevent or limit damage to the joints.

However, since the cause is not known, there is as yet no way to prevent such recurrences. The best attitude is to hope there will be no recurrence, but to be ready in case there is.

Dear Dr. Molner: I would like to see something in your column about using human waste as fertilizer in a garden. Doesn't this spread disease? — Mrs. S.H.

I guess I haven't mentioned that since last spring. Of course it spreads disease and should not be done.

The practice is common in some foreign countries where fertilizer is scarce; the people (those who don't die young) gradually become immune, apparently. To some extent, at least.

But visitors to these countries are pretty certain to become ill (diarrhea being only one of several illnesses) if they eat raw fruit or vegetables.

Human waste positively should not be used on gardens. There is only one exception: if it is chemically treated, and all germs are destroyed, it then can provide useful, nitrogenous fertilizer, but that means elaborate processing in a plant designed for that.

Dear Dr. Molner: Can anything be done to stop the progress of silicosis? — P.E.M.

Silicosis — disease of the lungs from inhaling particles of silicon dioxide, as from flint, grind stones, etc. — is not reversible. You can't cure it. But you can slow down its progress by getting the patient out of the environment where he might breathe any more such particles. (Copyright, 1966)

Masonry Paint OK On Stucco

BY ROGER C. WHITMAN

Q The oil paint on my stucco siding is now peeling sadly. What would be the best way to remove it and what type paint should I use next? — Worcester

A The best, easiest and most expensive way is sandblasting, done by a building cleaning contractor. This will get the surface in perfect condition for repainting. Otherwise it's laboriously wire-brushing or softening with paint remover then scraping off with putty knife. Any top-grade masonry paint will be okay.

Q: A few of the ceramic tiles on my bathroom wall have loosened and fallen out. Can I replace them? — Grand Rapids

A: Easily. Carefully sand off any cement residue left on the wall and backs of the tiles. Then butter with new tile cement and replace.

Q: Please tell me how to hang pictures on newly painted and papered walls so that there will be no nail holes showing when pictures are moved or taken down. — Milwaukee

A: Hang them with those old-fashioned S-shaped hangers and wire from that nice old-fashioned molding running around the edge of the ceiling.

If you don't like this, make an X of cellophane tape at the desired spot and drive the nail through the crossing. Friend, you can't drive a nail without punching a hole (but the cellophane tape prevents cracks radiating outward) any more than you can make an omelet without breaking eggs.

And tell me this: When you do move the pictures, how do you propose hiding the darker squares left on the walls.

Remember Days When Reruns Were Specials?

Rebroadcasts Dressed Up in Era of Lester-Dagmar, Godfrey and Others

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — Do you remember—

When Fay Emerson's low necklines caused much discussion? When Arthur Godfrey, wearing earphones and sitting at a desk on stage, conducted "Talent Scouts" like a booker for club dates? When Wendie Barry was a talk-show hostess and admonished her viewers to be good bunnies?

When Sherman Billingsley was host on a celebrity interview show conducted in a replica of the Stock Club?

Pretty Weather Girls? When weather girls modeled clothes, talked about themselves and one even played a ukelele to fill in the time?

When Roscoe Karns was "Rocky King, Private Detective," a live show on which one occasionally viewed the prop man or an electrician by mistake?

When Jerry Lester and a big blonde named Dagmar kept the audiences awake and laughing into the small hours? see some shows that will quietly depart from the networks in September. Somehow, after they have been canceled, they sometimes pack a little more charm. Some shows, like "Cowboy in Africa" will disappear without more than a ripple, but others will be missed.

Last Chance Viewing Among the faithful fans, will miss "Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea," partly for its interesting special effects and trick photography, but more for its ingenious assortment of monsters that, week after week, placed the submarine and its crew in deadly peril. My favorites were the scary ones that looked like outside boiled lobsters or overgrown bunches of lettuce.

I shall also miss the robot of "Lost in Space," which over two seasons developed a lovable personality and in one episode was involved in a romance of sorts with a lady computer.

"Tarzan," if watched in the proper mood and not tackled too often, has also been a frequent source of amusement.

All of these, of course, were potboilers and primarily designed to attract the young audience, but often in their earnest ways they were funnier than the most conscientious comedy shows.

Los Angeles' Don Drysdale pitches to Frank Marshall in the ninth inning en route to a 3-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants Friday night. Marshall walked to load the bases with no outs, but Drysdale retired the next three men to record his fifth consecutive shutout, which tied a 64-year-old major league record.

Drysdale Ties Record With Fifth Shutout in a Row

Works Out of Ninth-Inning Jam To Break NL Mark; Larry Jaster Retires First 23 Met Batters

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Don Drysdale and Larry Jaster both flirted with baseball's record book. Drysdale made it. For Jaster, well, it was a nice romance.

Drysdale, the towering, right-handed veteran of the Los Angeles Dodgers, pitched out of a ninth-inning jam for a 3-0 victory over the San Francisco Giants late Friday night.

It was big Don's fifth consecutive shutout, tying a major league mark set in 1904 by Doc White of the Chicago White Sox and breaking the National League record.

Jaster finished with a two-hitter and a 2-0 victory.

"A one-hitter or a two-hitter, yes, I get 'em," he said. "But not a no-hitter."

Houston Tips Chicago
Cincinnati edged Philadelphia 5-4, Atlanta beat Pittsburgh 5-2 and Houston took Chicago 3-1 in other National League games, all at night.

Drysdale was breezing along in great shape against the Giants, but almost blew it all in the ninth.

Willie McCovey led off with a walk, Jim Hart followed with a single and a walk to Frank Marshall loaded the bases with none out.

Then came a dispute. Dick Dietz appeared to be hit on the arm by a pitch, which would have forced in a run. But plate umpire Harry Wendelstedt said Dietz made no attempt to get out of the way and called the pitch a ball. Giant Manager Herman Franks was ejected in the discussion that followed.

Drysdale then retired Dietz on a shallow fly, got Cline to ground into a force play at the plate and retired Jack Hiatt on a pop fly. He finished with a six-hitter.

Wes Parker had two doubles for the Dodgers, driving in one run and scoring another.

Jaster finished with seven strikeouts against the Mets and outdueling hard-luck Tom Seaver, who had a 1.91 earned run average going into the game but has only a 2-5 record to show for it.

Brock Triples

The Cards got both their runs in the third. Lou Brock opened with a triple. Curt Flood singled him in, moved to second on a base on balls and scored on Mike Shannon's single.

Larry Dierker pitched a solid four-hitter and John Bateman slammed a two-run double in the Astros' victory over Chicago. Bateman's double with two out in the fourth broke a 1-1 tie and Dierker's pitching made it stand up.

Fred Whitfield singled in two runs in the seventh, breaking a 3-3 tie and pointing Cincinnati to its decision over Philadelphia.

The Phils took an early 3-1 lead on a two-run homer by Bill White and a solo smash by John Callison, but the Reds tied it in the sixth on run-producing hits by Alex Johnson and Johnny Bench.

Menasha '9' Trips Clippers, Reaches Sectional Finals

MENASHA — Cracking the jackpot for four runs in the fourth inning, Menasha High School tripped Sturgeon Bay, 6-4, in the semi-finals of the WIAA sectional baseball tournament here Friday.

De Perc came up with three runs in the sixth to beat Manitowoc, 4-2, in the opening game.

The Redbirds and Bluejays were slated to clash this afternoon for the championship and a berth in the state tournament at Eau Claire beginning Thursday.

Menasha scored an unearned run in the first on a missed third strike, two errors and a double steal but were passed by in the second when the Clippers' John Paul belted a 3-run homer to left. The ball traveled about 335 feet and was fair by less than two feet.

With one out in Menasha's fourth, Terry Vindhurst drove a single to left. Chuck Gilbert beat out an infield hit and Tom Gillen walked, loading the bases.

Vindhurst was out at the plate on a squeeze attempt but Vern Shukoski's grounder went through second baseman Chuck Olson, allowing Gilbert and Gillen to score.

Blohm Doubles

Winning pitcher Ted Blohm slammed a double to right field, driving in the last two runs of the inning.

The Jays had a fine scoring chance in the fifth when Brad Schliem and Vindhurst hit singles but two fielder's choice plays, one at the plate, took the Clippers out of danger.

Mike Walbrun singled to center to kick off Menasha's sixth. He was bunted to second by wet Riverview course, to qualify for next week's state tournament at Madison. The Terrors sixth run when Ron Haack hit a double.

Sturgeon Bay had come within a run in the top of the sixth when it tallied once on a walk, a hit and a squeeze play.

The Cherrylanders, who suffered only their second loss in 16 games, threatened in the seventh when Paul led off with a single. After a strikeout, Mark Ostrand was thrown out by Shukoski at first and when Paul wandered too far off third on the play, he was pegged out.

Blohm went the distance and gave up six hits. John Geitner and Chuck Kroll shared the Bays' mound duties and were nicked for seven.

Sturgeon Bay committed three errors, and they helped with a 78.

Back Garrison, Brown With 26 Hits

Foxes Sweep Doubleheader

BY TIM PETERMANN
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

The pitching was superb, the bats couldn't be stilled, the fielding was magnificent and the timing was perfect as the Appleton Foxes throttled the Clinton Pilots twice, 7-0 and 9-5, at Goodland Field Friday night.

With their teammates providing them with a 13-hit attack in each contest, southpaws Willie Garrison and Mike Brown each recorded his first victory of the year. Garrison's coming in his initial start after having fired only five innings previously.

The Foxes' first doubleheader sweep of the year in six attempts gives them a 3-game win streak to match the 3-game chain with which they started their Midwest League campaign.

Appleton, which is now 3-0 against Clinton for the season and within one game of .500, will take on the Pilots again tonight in the third game of the 4-game series beginning at 7:45 p.m. at Goodland Field.

Garrison's shutout in the opener was the Foxes' fourth of the year and came on the heels of Steve Kokor's whitewash of Waterloo Memorial Day. Although Garrison did not retire the Pilots in order in any inning, he was in complete control of the situation at all times as his sidearm and almost submarine delivery kept the Pilots off balance. The 23-year-old Montgomery native gave up seven hits, walked three and struck out three.

The Foxes all but sewed up a victory in the first inning as they combined an error and five hits including doubles by Danny Haynes and Rich Severson and a triple by Curt Fontenot for five runs.

Tommie Aaron Takes Lead

Tom Weiskopf Out After Firing Highest Second Round Score

ATLANTA (AP) — Affluent Tom Weiskopf is learning how to live with adversity on the golf course while unlucky Tommy Aaron is starting to enjoy the game.

Aaron, 31-year-old Georgian who is still looking for his first tournament title in nine seasons on the tour, was two shots in front of the field going into today's third round of the Atlanta Classic.

Weiskopf, who at 25 has already won $85,000 this year, was out of the tournament and held the dubious record of shooting the lowest score in the first round and the highest in the second.

"I'm embarrassed," said Weiskopf after a disastrous 83 put him out of the $115,000 tournament despite his opening 68, which had given him the first-round lead.

Aaron rolled into the lead with a 70 for a 36-hole total of 139, two strokes better than runner-up Bob Lunn. Jack Nicklaus was third at 142 and a handful of veterans were deadlocked at 144.

Karl Simon concluded Appleton's scoring in the fifth when he belted the ball over the left field fence with Art Kusnyer aboard.

In the second game, Brown did not give up an earned run in the six innings he worked. When the Pilots nicked Bill Cole for two runs in the final inning, they were the first earned runs given up by Foxes pitching in 22 innings. Brown surrendered eight hits and fanned six without walking anyone.

Again Appleton wasted little time in clinching a victory as it tallied all of its runs in the first four innings with three coming in both the second and third.

Severson, Scott Northey and Fontenot supplied most of the wood that went into the Foxes' attack as each belted a solo home run with Northey's and Fontenot's both clearing the 380 mark in left center field. Severson and Northey hit theirs an out apart in the second, and Fontenot greeted Bob Quezada, the third and last Clinton hurler, with his blast in the fourth.

Account for 2 Runs
In the first inning, Fontenot, Haynes and Greg Howell slapped back-to-back singles to the same spot in left center to account for two runs after two were out.

Consecutive safeties by Gary Kirtlan, Kolb and Severson plus an error, passed ball and wild pitched plated three markers in the third.

No Foxes were held hitless for the night. Hal Caldwell was the only player who failed to get a hit in the first game, but he and everyone else managed at least one in the nightcap.

The Foxes finished the twin bill with a batting average of .426 (26 for 61) with Jeff Kolb going 4-for-6, Haynes 4-for-3 and

Appleton East Tennis Team Captures Sectional Crown

MENASHA — Appleton East High School was the surprise winner of the WIAA tennis sectional, which began here Friday and was slated to conclude with the singles championship today.

The Patriots, who have completed play, chalked up 29 points. Menasha has 17 and only can garner two more if Kevin Conway defeats Pat Brautigan for the singles crown.

Neenah finished with 12, while Kaukauna has eight with a chance for two more if Brautigan upsets Conway.

All four schools will be represented at the state tournament, which begins Friday at Nicolet.

Conway Breezes

East and Menasha, by placing first and second, qualified full teams. Neenah will send its championship doubles unit of Jeff Jensen and Brian Koehn while Kaukauna will be represented by Brautigan, win or lose in the finals.

Conway, the defending sectional champion, breezed to 6-1, 6-1 and 6-1, 6-1 victories over the Rockets' Mike Nabbefeld and George Mills, Appleton, respectively.

Brautigan bested Fred Endter, Menasha, 6-0, 6-1 and Tom Schroedl, East, 7-5, 6-4, to reach the finals.

Mills won over teammate Schroedl by default for the third place point.

Koehn and Jensen upended Menasha's Ben Adams and Jeff Bles.

Kohler Wins State Class C Track Title

MADISON (AP)—Manitowoc's Ships were out to match tiny Kohler's success today in the 73rd annual WIAA state track championship at Monona Grove near Madison.

Kohler's Blue Bombers, who shared the 1967 Class C championship with Unity, won the title outright Friday by chalking up 40 1/2 points in a field of 106 other small schools at the opening of the annual meet.

Six Class C records were shattered Friday, two of them by Kohler.

Although Manitowoc was given a chance to repeat as Class A champion, Plymouth's reign as the Class B titlist was over. Plymouth qualified only one boy for the state meet this year.

Manitowoc was set to fight off the challenges of at least seven contenders, including Racine Horlick, La Crosse Central and Wausau.

In 9 Events

Kohler scored in nine of the 14 events and captured four first places in winning its 10th Class C title. The 40 1/2 points were the most a Class C champion had compiled since the 1948 Kohler team backed up 43 1/2.

Kohler's Tom Gordon scored two firsts, in the long jump and 180 yard low hurdles. Gordon ran the low hurdles in :20.0, two-tenths of a second under the old record set by Dick Haertel of Juneau in 1963.

He was first in the long jump with a leap of 21-10 1/2.

Dave Anderson of Kohler won the 220 yard dash in :22.9, and the Kohler 880 yard relay team set a Class C record of 1:33.0. The old mark was set by Kohler a year ago.

Terry Light of Cadott bettered the old high jump record of 6-2 1/2 with a 6-4 effort. The old record was held by Dennis Burrenson of Argyle, who set it in 1965.

Jim Ekern of Gale-Etrick ran the 120 yard high hurdles in :14.9, defeating defending champion Gary Johnson of Shiocton. It marked the first time a Class C performer had cracked 15 seconds in the event.

Oostburg's mile relay team set a class record 3:30.0. The old mark of 3:30.7 was set by Unity a year ago.

In the 880 yard run, MeFarland's Craig Swenson bettered the 2:00.4 record set by Jim Stoltenberg of Wittenberg in 1967 with a time of 1:56.8.

Shiocton's Johnson placed third in defense of his high hurdles title, and he came home second in the 180-yard low hurdles.

Defending champion Stoltenberg chased Shawano to the new 880 record and finished a close second.

Freedom's Al Garvey finished third in the 100 yard dash.

Peppler Will be Faced By Ex-Sheriff in Fall

OSHKOSH — Winnebago County Sheriff Marvin Peppler will be challenged by a former sheriff on the Republican ticket in a September primary.

Both Peppler and Richard "Bud" Lowell, county sheriff for two terms from 1960 and 1964, have announced their candidacy, taking advantage of the recent amendment to the state constitution that erased the two-term restriction on the job.

Peppler, 42, has twice defeated Quin Rasmussen, first as a Democrat and then as a Republican, by large margins. An 18-

At the junior high schools, there will be regular classes through Thursday, with dismissal at noon and bus schedules adjusted accordingly.

In elementary schools there will be regular classes through noon on Thursday, except for the bus students. All boys and girls riding school buses will be dismissed at 11 a.m. on Thursday, according to Supt. Donald Scott.

NEENAH — A 22-year-old motorcyclist was injured Friday afternoon in a collision with a car at Oak and Franklin streets.

Douglas P. Chartre, 719 E. Cecil St., was taken to Theda Clark Hospital with minor hip and ankle injuries.

The driver of the car, Mrs. Marion E. Owen, 60, 241 N. Park Ave., told police she had stopped at the intersection stop sign as she was heading east on Franklin. She said she did not see the motorcycle before pulling into the intersection, resulting in the accident with the northbound motorcycle.

June Is Dairy Month

Fewer Cows in County, More Milk

OSHKOSH — With the start of dairy month today, Winnebago County Agricultural Agent Vernon Peroutky reported that the long range trend toward fewer dairy herds but higher milk production is continuing in the county.

In 1967, the county had approximately 822 dairy herds and 24,509 milk cows. This compares to 33,100 cows in 1955, a sharp drop to 27,900 in 1965, and 26,400 in 1966.

But the milk production is up, he said, and the quality of milk produced in Winnebago County is high.

A credit to county dairy farmers, Peroutky said, is their "long time interest," in improving the efficiency of milk cows. About 44 per cent of the cows in the county are tested each month for buttermilk content. Butterfat still is a measure of quality when payment of milk is made, he said.

Wage Problem

One large problem facing the Winnebago Dairy farmer today is wages.

The county is going through a cycle because of the high hourly wages in industry which attract many young men off the farm.

The dairy steer has proven relatively profitable in the county because of the good forage of alfalfa and broomgrass, he said. Less than ten per cent have switched, he said, from dairy farming to dairy steer raising.

Another trend for the dairy farmer is raising corn as a commercial crop. Peroutky estimated about 35 former dairy farms in the county have switched to corn.

Small Plants

Another factor in the dairy business is the squeeze on the smaller dairy plants. Although

Winnebago Candidates Start Their County, Assembly Races

Nomination Papers Drawn For Fall Election Tests

OSHKOSH — The first three runners were off on their qualifying laps today as the season opened for candidates to circulate nomination papers to enter this fall's election races.

The county clerk's office listed Treasurer Frank Luedeke, Sheriff Marvin R. Peppler and Coroner Art C. Miller as having taken out nomination forms.

All are Republicans. None so far is opposed, although county Democrats expect to put up candidates for most county offices before nomination papers must be turned in July 9, and opposition within his own party is expected for Peppler.

Meanwhile, the first contest between a Democrat and Republican shaped up in the second assembly district, but the prospective opponents stood short of the starting line.

Challenger Announces

Unready to take out nomination papers but announced are Democratic challenger John R. Allen, 43, route 1, Oshkosh, and Republican Assemblyman Floyd A. Shurbert, 67, Town of Algoma.

Shurbert said he thought it too early to make a formal announcement, but he said he intends to run for a sixth term in the Assembly.

Peppler's Republican opposition is expected to come from former sheriff Bud Lowell.

All incumbent courthouse office holders and Assemblymen — all Republicans — are expected to seek re-election. William Wingren, Oshkosh, county Democratic Party chairman, said he expects his party to put up candidates for all three Assembly seats and for most county offices.

Allen, an Allenville area farmer and former school teacher, is so far the only announced Democratic candidate. Wingren said his party expects to have candidates in the running for sheriff, clerk, register of deeds and treasurer.

Other Incumbents

Besides Shurbert, the incumbent assemblymen are Jack R. Steinhilber, who represents the county's First District, covering most of the City of Oshkosh, and David O. Martin, Neenah, representing the City and Town of Neenah and City of Menasha, which make up the Third District.

Martin recently announced his candidacy for re-election, and Steinhilber has said he expects to announce in about a week.

Other incumbents include County Clerk Dorothy Propp, Circuit Court Clerk William E. Osborn, Dist. Atty. Thomas A. Fink, Register of Deeds Viola Firnstahl, and Surveyor Theodore E. Stearns.

Winnebago County is one of the seven counties of the Sixth Congressional District, where Rep. William A. Steiger, R-Oshkosh, has announced he will seek a second term in Congress, and Democrat John A. Race, Fond du Lac, says he will oppose Steiger for the seat Race held one term before being defeated by Steiger two years ago.

The period for circulating nomination papers ends at 5 p.m. July 9, when they must be returned to the county clerk's office with the necessary signatures. The primary election will be Sept. 10 and the general election Nov. 5. Terms of the county officers and assemblymen expire on the first Monday of January.

Winneconne Youth Shot in Leg in Hunting Accident

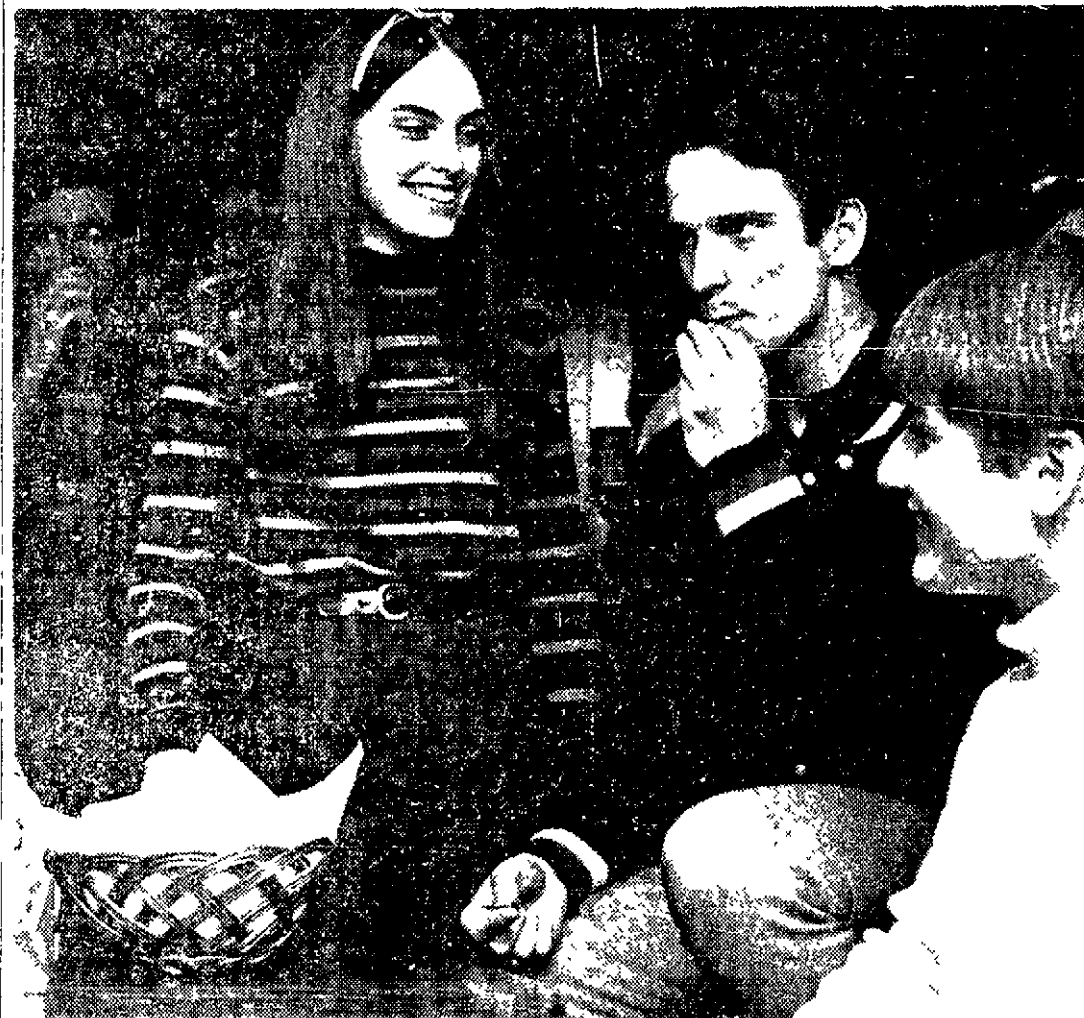

OSHKOSH — A 17-year-old Winneconne youth was shot in the leg Friday morning in a freak hunting accident involving his 15-year-old brother.

Ronald Hahn, who lives on state 116 near County Trunk M told authorities that he and his brother, Daniel, were hunting with a 22 caliber rifle when the accident occurred.

He said that Daniel shot at a squirrel near the bottom of a tree trunk and that the bullet ricocheted off the tree and struck Ronald in the right leg just below the knee.

He was taken to Mercy Hospital soon after, when a doctor said the pellet had pierced a leg bone and lodged in the leg.

The accident occurred at about 9.30 a.m. Friday.

Neenah Plans Commission Okays Schellie Plan, Building Controls

NEENAH — The plans commission gave its approval Friday to a six-month moratorium on new construction in the proposed downtown redevelopment area and approved the Schellie redevelopment plan "as a recommended guideline for the comprehensive redevelopment plan."

Both had prior approval from the redevelopment authority (RACON) and go next to the common council for action. The Plans Commission also recently put its stamp of recommendation on the proposed redevelopment area boundaries, which also are expected to arrive for action on the council floor next Wednesday.

Meeting Friday afternoon, the commission heard from City Atty. Charles Schaller and Public Works Director Wayne Bryan before acting on the proposals.

Much of the discussion centered on the Schellie plan, with some confusion over whether the plan represented a general outline or is intended as the specific redevelopment plan.

The commission's approval was carefully phrased by Commissioner Robert Thom to signify that the commission considers the proposals by Planner Kenneth Schellie a guideline for more specific future planning.

Bryan, who also takes part in RACON activities and has seen the Schellie plan progress, said he was sure it is intended only as a preliminary guide.

Schaller pointed out the distinction is significant, since if it were instead the redevelopment plan it would have to be subjected first to a public hearing with all property owners in the core redevelopment area notified, and once adopted by both RACON and the council would be the instrument that gave RACON the full powers of a redevelopment authority.

The building moratorium, if approved, makes it necessary for applicants for construction permits in the core area to apply for approval from the council. The council, Schaller explained, can grant permits only after finding that the proposed construction doesn't seriously conflict with redevelopment plans and that the applicant would suffer serious damage if the permit were denied.

The moratorium is designed to hold off projects that would conflict with redevelopment plans while the plans are being prepared.

Contractors Await Vote by Carpenters on Final Offer

Youth, 19, Committed to Central State

Michael Brown, 19, 724 N. Bennett St., Friday afternoon was committed to Central State Hospital at Waupun for 60 days observation.

The youth, who is serving an eight-months sentence in the Outagamie County jail, was charged with disorderly conduct as a result of a struggle with policemen and a barber who cut his hair in jail April 10.

He pleaded innocent and was to have had a jury trial May 15. However, trial was postponed when Brown's attorney withdrew because there were no arrangements for compensation. Dist. Atty. George Greisch, then requested the court to conduct a summary examination to inquire as to Brown's mental condition.

An attorney was appointed by the court and the case was continued to Friday for the summary hearing. The attorney told the court Friday that Brown was willing to commit himself voluntarily to the state hospital.

"He recognized help and assistance are needed," the attorney said. Brown is serving a sentence for theft and possession of dangerous drugs.

Appleton Man Admits Thefts of Grinders From Allis Chalmers

Dennis A. Schiller, 27, 1708 S. Adams St., was placed on one year probation to the State Department of Health and Social Services Friday after he pleaded guilty of the Nov. 15, 1966 theft of two air-operated grinders from the Allis Chalmers Appleton plant where he was employed.

An Appleton detective told the court Schiller was charged after one of the grinders got into the hands of a plant official after Schiller traded both machines in on two motorcycles in Appleton. The grinders were taken from a tool room at the plant. Schiller reportedly took the machines home and ground off the serial and model numbers but, according to police, overlooked the stock numbers. It was through a trace of the stock numbers, that the grinders were identified after a plant official saw the larger machine.

Police said the two grinders were valued at about $150.

2 Hurt in Mishap At Neenah Corner

NEENAH — Two persons received minor injuries when the car in which they were riding struck the rear of another vehicle at Commercial and Cecil streets around 10 p.m. Thursday.

Marcus A. Speakes, 47, 520 Caroline St., and his wife Dorothy, both received cuts on their foreheads.

Police said a car driven by Albert J. Touar, 18, 3537 W. Ailenville Road, Oshkosh, was stopped for a traffic light northbound on Commercial when it was struck in the rear by the Speakes auto.

Strike Authorized; Decision On Contract Expected Today

The threat of a mass walkout of union carpenters throughout the Fox Valley loomed this morning.

A decision on whether an estimated 1,200 to 1,500 will strike against the Fox Valley Contractors Association was expected early this afternoon.

The old contract expired at midnight.

Jerry Jahnke, secretary-treasurer of the Fox Valley District Council of Carpenters, confirmed earlier in the week that the membership had taken a strike vote.

Final Offer

Negotiators for the union and association held meetings at the Holiday Inn — the latest Friday — and the contractors reportedly made their final offer.

There was speculation whether the union negotiating committee would recommend approval of the offer.

Terms of the contractors' offer were not disclosed in the report.

Cyclist Bruises Arm In Accident With Car

KAUKAUNA — The driver of a motorbike, John Niesen, 20, 218 W. Ninth St., escaped with an abrasion to the arm when his vehicle collided with a car at Wisconsin Avenue and Lawe Street about 5-10 p.m. Thursday.

Petitions Back Appleton Fair Housing Law

200 Residents in 12th Ward File Paper With Alderman

More than 200 residents in the 12th Ward have petitioned their alderman to support a fair housing law study for Appleton.

Ald. John Ayers (12th) said the petitions were circulated in the ward earlier in the week and filed with him late Friday afternoon.

Ayers intends to turn them over to the city clerk's office Monday morning to be included in the city council file.

"I told the circulators I would support the recommendation of the welfare-ordinance committee to have a study," Ayers said.

Ayers indicated the petitions were circulated by members of the League of Women Voters and others with direct or indirect association with Lawrence University.

On Friday another petition opposing a fair housing ordinance for Appleton — signed by about 100 persons — was sent to the mayor's office.

Judge Angered by Greisch Tardiness

Schaefer Points to Several Instances When DA Was Late

Angered over what he later indicated were numerous incidents of tardiness on the part of Dist. Atty. George Greisch, Outagamie County Judge Nick F. Schaefer Friday afternoon delayed the start of his court calendar for one hour when Greisch again was late.

Schaefer took the bench shortly before the usual 1:30 p.m. starting time. In the courtroom at the time was his official court reporter, two news reporters, an attorney, and five other persons, some of whom had been summoned to appear.

Schaefer waited about two minutes and when Greisch did not enter the courtroom, he recessed all proceedings to 2:30 p.m. Greisch came into the courtroom minutes later. He explained to reporters that he was "tied up with a long distance telephone call" in his office.

Visiting Deer Is Fatally Injured in Appleton Traffic

A four-legged pedestrian, apparently not familiar with Appleton traffic, was killed Friday evening when it ran into the side of a car on S. Walnut Street, between W. College Avenue and Lawrence Street.

The pedestrian, a deer, bounded out of an alley and into the side of a car driven by Mrs. Daisy McPheeters, 81, 909 E. Alton St., shortly after 6 p.m.

The injured animal was found dead a short time later in the 700 block of W. Spencer Street.

Mrs. McPheeters was not injured but the side of her car was damaged.

Appleton police said there had been several sightings of deer reported in the city prior to the accident.

New London Father Man Freed on Charge Of Beating His Son

A 39-year-old rural New London man charged with beating his 14-year-old son Feb. 27 was freed of the charge in Outagamie County Court Branch 2 Friday afternoon.

Dist. Atty. George Greisch asked for dismissal of the charge against Alois Delzer, route 1, saying the request came following a conference with all parties involved.

Delzer, father of six, pleaded

Fracas Brings Five Charges Against Youth

Five charges were brought Friday against a 19-year-old Milwaukee youth whom police and five men subdued at a Black Creek restaurant Thursday night.

Outagamie County Judge Nick F. Schaefer continued to Monday morning the case against John R. Wozniak, who is charged with resisting an officer, driving without a valid license, driving after his license was revoked, driving under the influence of intoxicants, and displaying registration issued to another auto.

Schaefer set bond at $895. He continued the case to allow Wozniak time to consult an attorney.

Officer Threatened

Wozniak was arrested by Outagamie County police after he reportedly threatened an officer with a pool cue in The Lark, at Black Creek about 7 p.m. Thursday. The county patrolman went into the restaurant after Wozniak to question him in regard to his erratic driving on State 47.

The disturbance started after Wozniak refused to go with the patrolman. Four members of the Black Creek baseball team and the manager of the restaurant helped the patrolman subdue Wozniak. Four men restrained the youth in the squad car on the way to Appleton.

Recreation Area Dedication Set

KAUKAUNA — Mayor Gilbert Anderson has announced that Friday, June 15 is the date for the dedication of the Doty Bayougreen Recreation Area.

The outdoor sports complex, developed by the Electric and Water Utility, is located on Dodge Street and is named after Mayor Joseph "Doty" Bayougreen who served as mayor from 1946 until his death in 1968.

A bust with a likeness of the former mayor will be placed at the area during the dedication ceremony. Aids. William Rogers and Russell Dix are working with Anderson in planning the program while David Flanagan is handling publicity.

Today's Deaths

Mrs. John Klapperich, 88, 46 E. Brooklyn St., Chilton.

Miss Bonnie Jean Van De Loo, 32, route 2, Kaukauna.

previously allowed allowances be put on actual mileage basis, to be approved in advance."

Amendment carried, motion as amended carried.

On motion by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Sprister, and carried, item on the proposal to lease space for the automotive and truck driving program at Oshkosh was removed.

Mr. Sirek reported that the original automotive building at Oshkosh could handle 20 full time students with a maximum of about 25.

Currently, there are 54 full time students and two instructors. We are anticipating an enrollment of 60 in September and are working in the area of starting a truck driving program.

Directly across the street from the automotive building is a 4,000 sq. ft. building with approximately 60,000 sq. ft. of land that could be used for a roader arrangement for the truck driving program. We can get a sublease on this property for $365 per month. This would provide room for four teachers' offices, classroom and laboratory. It would be used about 65 per cent of the time. The present facility is 50x100 ft. and is being used 100 per cent of the time.

The industrial commission would have to approve this property for use as a school before we could agree to any lease.

Mr. Williams, legal counsel, advised that this property could be leased without advertising for bids. This will be verified by letter.

On motion by Mr. Ramsdell, seconded by Mr. Steinfert, and carried, the area administrator was authorized to investigate the possibility of leasing space subject to approval of Industrial Commission and provide the qualifications of the contract are met.

Mr. Sirek explained that some money would be forthcoming from the chauffeur license fees. Equipment has been recommended by the Advisory Committee and amounts to $67,000, but we would not like to purchase the total amount at this time.

The Truckers' Association and Teamsters Union are behind this program. We will have 16 students starting in September. The Truckers' Association has said they will hire anyone who completes this program. The maximum outlay would be $67,000 at this point and can be handled through the equipment and furniture budget, $30,000 of which would be reimbursed by the state.

A sheriff's report on the progress of this program, the Board approved in principle the institution of a truck driving program and authorized the director to advertise for bids for two semi-trailers, one straight truck with single axle, one 48 ft. van and one 27 ft. van, and to be prepared for the meeting of this Board with the responses of this bid and a write-up of this program.

Moved by Mr. Ramsdell, seconded by Mr. Smith, the motion was amended to read "advertise for bids for necessary equipment for the program."

Amendment carried, motion as amended carried.

Mr. Sirek gave a report on the progress being made in securing staff to fill the new positions which the Board authorized at their meeting of February 19, 1966.

Mr. Sirek gave a preliminary report on the progress of the appraisers. An itemized report will be forthcoming within the next few days.

Mr. Sirek reported that he, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Bordini attended the Technical Education Conference at Oshkosh, Wis., June 10-11.

Mr. Sirek pointed out that there is a tremendous need for technicians. One section of the conference covered the need for technicians in the area of the country the biggest problem "obtaining adequate staff."

Mr. Bordini began to give a report on the long range plans and told the Board he, Mr. Spanbauer, and Mr. Sirek would be meeting with the State Board on April 22 regarding proposals for programs to be offered in the new central facility.

Mr. Ramsdell moved that a special meeting of the VTE District 12 Board be called for Wednesday, April 24, for the purpose of discussing long range plans for VTE District 12.

On motion by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Ramsdell and carried, the motion was amended to designate this as a regular meeting.

Section 3.03 of the newly adopted By-Laws, Amendment carried.

Board members will also be notified. Mr. Smith moved to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried. Meeting was adjourned at midnight.

Darwin Smith, Secretary

Sales Rise at Waupaca Firm

A. E. Moore Has 15 Consecutive Growth Years

WAUPACA — A. E. Moore Company Inc. experienced its 15th consecutive year of growth and set a sales record, according to the annual report presented to stockholders Saturday at the Waupaca Country Club.

The firm, which started in 1952, had sales last year totaling $682,210 compared with $613,879 in 1966.

Its products include electric door operators, power dumbwaiters, power milk feeders and custom machinery.

Company president William W. Spiegler said the improved design of a new screw drive operator is getting enthusiastic reception from dealers and the addition of a chain drive door operator to the line now enables the firm to offer a budget priced unit to dealers.

Profits earned by the company amounted to $1.73 per share compared with $1.29 during the previous year.

The strong sales in January suggests that sales this year will reach an unprecedented rate of growth and that 1968 may be the best year for the firm, Spiegler said.

Olive Drab Is on Parade

BY VIRGINIA SCHMIDT
Post-Crescent Correspondent

FREMONT — It is a grand old olive drab that has accompanied the colors of "Old Glory" for the past 50 years. The World War I uniform worn by William Russel for every parading occasion is the same uniform he wore as a soldier in Europe.

His three pieces of head gear include the overseas field cap which was worn under the helmet and the brim hat worn when leaving the states. His boots and laced canvass leggings are also a part of the everyday uniform issued at Brest, France, May 18, 1918. With no change in stature or girth, Russel has worn his size 38 coat and trousers of 32 waist and 29 length in parades every year.

Half Century Ago

Just a half century ago this May Russel was stationed with the Sixth Division, 53rd Infantry, Company D at Rheims, a camp 12 miles from their headquarters company at Chaumont, France.

As a corporal in the signal corps he was a runner. If the messages were not verbal they were written on small thin sheets of paper, like cigarette papers, so they could be swallowed if the runner was captured. Every four hours another runner was dispatched with the same message until confirmation of delivery was received.

Russel received shrapnel injuries on the neck, head, arm and hand and because of gas is handicapped with only one lung. He entered the hospital in France Sept. 4, 1918 and remained for four months. Light duty after release while recuperating was working in the army mail department and making a trip once a week. He has been in Belgium, Germany, Italy and Holland.

Returns to States

Although about one half million American troops had returned to the states by April, 1919, and over 300,000 more returned during the month of May alone, Russel left for the states June 14. He received his discharge at Camp Jackson, South Carolina, the same camp where he had enlisted.

Russel was born April 4, 1890, at Winona, Minnesota, and lived for a while in Stevens Point. After his discharge he became a member of the Oney Johnston Legion Post, Appleton, then transferred to a post in Milwaukee and is now a member of the Wolf River American Legion Post at Fremont, where for more than a quarter of a century he has been active in every post sponsored event, not always wearing the uniform but always preserving the dignity of it.

Blum has been with the New London National Bank since 1964. He is a New Glarus native, attended Wisconsin State University-Whitewater, and been engaged in banking for nine years. He was previously employed by banks in Monroe and Milledgeville, Ill.

He is a member of the New London Rotary Club, Milledgeville Masonic Lodge and New London Jaycees. He has served on the boards of New London United Methodist Church, New London United Fund and New London Fish and Game Club.

Airport Group Wants to Build Wider Taxiway

Federal Funds Have Been Granted to Provide 50 Feet

The Outagamie County Board's airport committee agreed Friday to seek to have a 75-foot-wide taxiway constructed on the northwest-southeast runway instead of the 50-foot wide taxiway for which federal funds are being provided.

The county was notified two weeks ago that federal funds were approved to construct the 50-foot taxiway in the 1969 Federal Aviation Agency program. Along with those funds the county received reimbursement for land purchases made several years ago. The grant totaled $294,650.

Estimated costs of the 50-foot taxiway is $248,500. This could mean the county would not have to appropriate any additional funds for the project.

Need Taxiway

However, the airport committee felt the 75-foot taxiway would be needed in the future and it would be better to construct the full width now rather than having to add 25 feet at some later date.

Supv. John Dietz, Appleton, chairman, said it was estimated it would cost about $80,000 more for the full 75 foot width. The exact amount of additional funds that would be needed for 75 feet is not known at this time.

The existing taxiway on the northeast-southwest runway is 75 feet wide and airport committees felt this policy should be followed through for both runways.

The committee also will recommend that $2,000 be transferred from the airport's snow removal fund to the salary fund to hire part-time maintenance help this summer.

Soliciting Problems

Officials of the Avis and Hertz car rental agencies will be contacted by airport manager, Charles Olson, to settle problems in which have arisen over the two firms soliciting customers in the airport terminal.

Two months ago, the county leased space in the terminal to the Midwest Car Rental corporation and since that time Avis and Hertz also have been soliciting customers in the terminal although they do not rent space. Air Wisconsin officials have said their customers have complained about this solicitation.

The two rental agencies will be told they may put a sign in the terminal indicating that rental cars are available in the parking lot but no solicitation may take place within the terminal building.

Fracas Brings Five Charges Against Youth

Five charges were brought Friday against a 19-year-old Milwaukee youth whom police and five men subdued at a Black Creek restaurant Thursday night.

Outagamie County Judge Nick F. Schaefer continued to Monday morning the case against John R. Wozniak, who is charged with resisting an officer, driving without a valid license, driving after his license was revoked, driving under the influence of intoxicants, and displaying registration issued to another auto.

The disturbance started after Wozniak refused to go with the patrolman. Four members of the Black Creek baseball team and the manager of the restaurant subdued Wozniak. Four men restrained the youth in the squad car on the way to Appleton.

Amendment carried, motion as amended.

On motion by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Sprister and carried, the Board proposed to lease space for the automotive and truck driving program at Oshkosh. Mr. Smith reported that his original automotive building at Oshkosh could handle 20 faculty and students, with a maximum of about 35, with one instructor. Currently, there are 54 full time students and two instructors. We are anticipating an enrollment of 60 in September and are working in the area of starting a truck driving program.

Directly across the street from the automotive building is a 4,000 sq ft building with approximately 60,000 sq ft of land that could be used for a parking arrangement for the truck driving program. We can get a sublease on this property for $25 per month. It would provide room for four teachers' offices, plus classroom and laboratory. It would be used about 45 per cent of the time. The present facility is 30,000 ft and is being used 100 per cent of the time.

The Industrial Commission would have to approve this property for use as a school before we could agree to it.

Mr. Williams, legal counsel, advised that this property could be leased without advertising for bids. This will be verified by Mr. Smith.

On motion by Mr. Ramsdell, seconded by Mr. Sprister and carried, the area administrator was authorized to investigate the possibility of leasing space subject to approval of Industrial Commission and providing the qualifications of the contract are met.

Mr. Sirek explained that some money would be forthcoming from the chauffeur license fees. Equipment has been provided by the Trunkers Association and amounts to $67,000, but we would not have to purchase the total amount at the time. The Trunkers Association and Teamsters Union are behind this program. We will have 16 students in September. The Trunkers Association has said they will hire anyone who completes this program. The maximum salary would be $27,000. It is possible to be handled through the equipment and furniture budget. $30,000 would be reimbursed by the state.

It was moved by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Sprister, that the Board approve in principle the possibility of leasing space for the automotive and truck driving program and authorize the Director to advertise for bids for two semesters, one for August and one for January, and to be prepared at the next meeting of the Board with the respective bids and a report-up of this program.

Moved by Mr. Ramsdell, seconded by Mr. Smith and carried, the Board read "advertisements for bids for necessary equipment for the program."

Amendment carried, motion as amended.

Mr. Sirek gave a report on the progress being made, secured the full-time new positions which the Board authorized at their meeting of February 19, 1968.

Mr. Sirek gave a preliminary report on the progress of the appraisers. An itemized report will be forthcoming within the next few days.

Mr. Sirek reported that he, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Bordin attended the Technical Education Conference at Albuquerque, New Mexico, on March 27-29. It was pointed out that there is a tremendous need for technicians. One section of the conference was devoted to vocational planning and research survey, another section was on curriculum planning and program development. The vocational programs throughout the country's biggest problem is obtaining adequate funds.

Mr. Bordin began to give a report on the long range plans and told the Board he, Mr. Spambauer, and Mr. Sirek would be meeting with the State Board of Technical Education on June 12, 1968, regarding proposals for programs to be offered in the new central facility.

Mr. Ramsdell moved that a special meeting of the VTAE District 12 Board be called for Wednesday, April 24 for the purpose of discussing long range plans for VTAE District 12.

On motion by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Ramsdell and carried, the motion was amended to designate this as a regular meeting in accordance with Regular Session 303 of the newly adopted By-Laws Amendment.

Motion as amended carried. Board members will also be notified in writing by Mr. Smith moved to adjourn the meeting. Motion carried. Meeting was adjourned at midnight.

...was previously allowed to be put on actual mileage basis, to be approved in advance."

Amendment carried, motion as amended.

On motion by Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Sprister and carried, the Board proposed to lease space for the automotive and truck driving program at Oshkosh. Mr. Smith reported that his original automotive building at Oshkosh could handle 20 faculty and students, with a maximum of about 35, with one instructor. Currently, there are 54 full time students and two instructors. We are anticipating an enrollment of 60 in September and are working in the area of starting a truck driving program.

Directly across the street from the automotive building is a 4,000 sq ft building with approximately 60,000 sq ft of land that could be used for a parking arrangement for the truck driving program. We can get a sublease on this property for $25 per month. It would provide room for four teachers' offices, plus classroom and laboratory. It would be used about 45 per cent of the time. The present facility is 30,000 ft and is being used 100 per cent of the time.

The Industrial Commission would have to approve this property for use as a school before we could agree to it.

Mr. Williams, legal counsel, advised that this property could be leased without advertising for bids. This will be verified by Mr. Smith.

Sales Rise at Waupaca Firm

A. E. Moore Has 15 Consecutive Growth Years

WAUPACA — A. E. Moore Company Inc. experienced its 15th consecutive year of growth and set a sales record, according to the annual report presented to stockholders Saturday at the Waupaca Country Club.

The firm, which started in 1952, had sales last year totaling $682,210 compared with $613,879 in 1966.

Its products include electric door operators, power dumb-waiters, power milk feeders and custom machinery.

Company president William W. Spiegler said the improved design of a new screw drive operator is getting enthusiastic reception from dealers and the addition of a chain drive door operator to the line now enables the firm to offer a budget priced unit to dealers.

Profits earned by the company amounted to $1.73 per share compared with $1.29 during the previous year.

The strong sales in January suggests that sales this year will reach an unprecedented rate of growth and that 1968 may be the best year for the firm, Spiegler said.

Olive Drab Is on Parade

BY VIRGINIA SCHMIDT
Post-Crescent Correspondent

FREMONT — It is a grand old olive drab that has accompanied the colors of "Old Glory" for the past 50 years. The World War I uniform worn by William Russel for every parading occasion is the same uniform he wore as a soldier in Europe.

His three pieces of head gear include the overseas field cap which was worn under the helmet and the brim hat worn when leaving the states. His boots and laced canvass leggings are also a part of the everyday uniform issued at Brest, France, May 18, 1918. With no change in stature or girth, Russel has worn his size 38 coat and trousers of 32 waist and 29 length in parades every year.

Half Century Ago

Just a half century ago this May Russel was stationed with the Sixth Division, 53rd Infantry, Company D at Rheims, a camp 12 miles from their headquarters company at Chaumont, France.

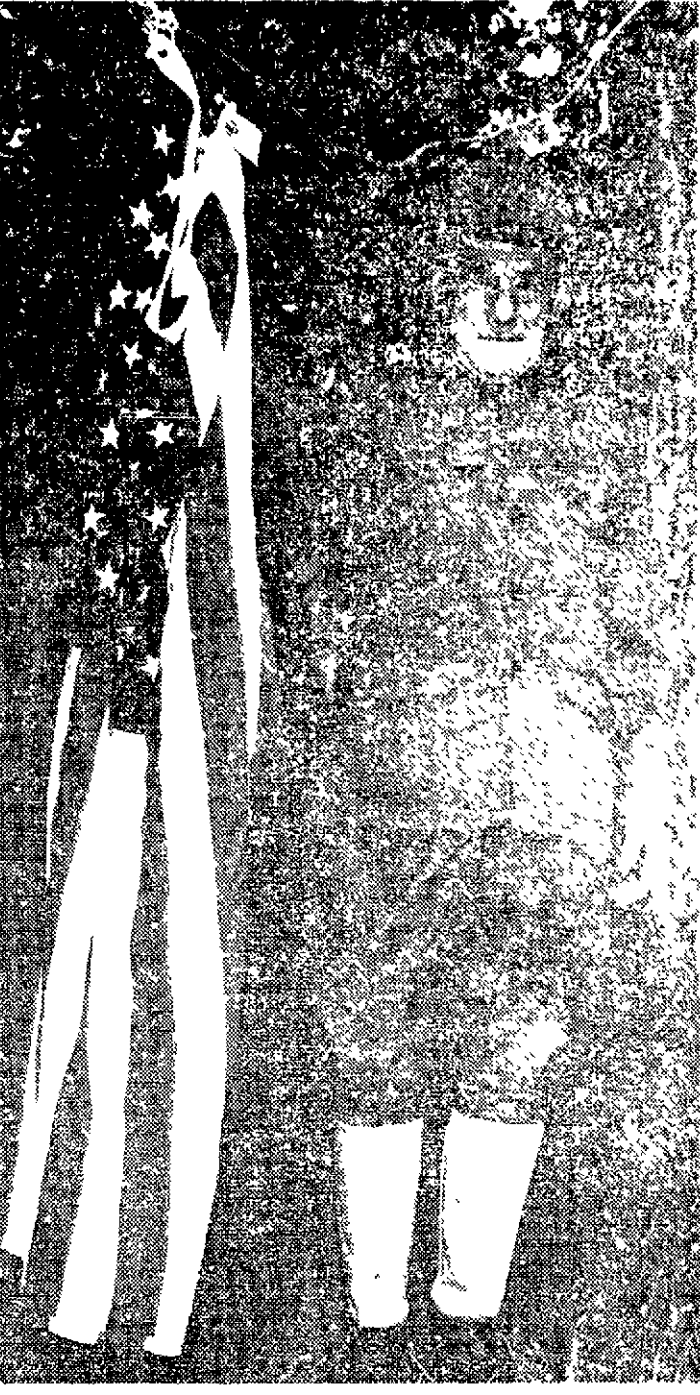

As a corporal in the signal corps he was a runner. If the messages were not verbal they were written on small thin sheets of paper, like cigarette papers, so they could be swallowed if the runner was captured. Every four hours another runner was dispatched with the same message until confirmation of delivery was received.

Russel received shrapnel injuries on the neck, head, arm and hand and because of gas is handicapped with only one lung. He entered the hospital in France Sept. 4, 1918 and remained for four months. Light duty after release while recuperating was working in the army mail department and making a trip once a week. He has been in Belgium, Germany, Italy and Holland.

Returns to States

Although about one half million American troops had returned to the states by April, 1919, and over 300,000 more returned during the month of May alone, Russel left for the states June 14. He received his discharge at Camp Jackson, South Carolina, the same camp where he had enlisted.

Russel was born April 4, 1890, at Winona, Minnesota, and lived for a while in Stevens Point. After his discharge he became a member of the Oney Johnston Legion Post, Appleton, then transferred to a post in Milwaukee and is now a member of the Wolf River American Legion Post at Fremont, where for more than a quarter of a century he has been active in every post sponsored event, not always wearing the uniform but always preserving the dignity of it.

The World War I uniform of William Russel is worn for the Memorial Day parade every year. While the uniform is a half-century old, the holidays are observed with a new American flag displayed at his Fremont home. (Schmidt Photo)

Judge Angered by Greisch Tardiness

Schaefer Points to Several Instances When DA Was Late

Angered over what he later delayed the start of his court indicated were numerous incidents of tardiness on the part of Greisch again was late.

Dist. Atty. George Greisch, Schaefer took the bench shortly after 1:30 p.m. before the usual 1:30 p.m. starting time. In the courtroom at the time was his official court reporter, two news reporters, an attorney, and five other persons, some of whom had been summoned to appear.

Schaefer waited about two minutes and when Greisch did not enter the courtroom, he recessed all proceedings to 2:30 p.m. Greisch came into the courtroom minutes later. He explained to reporters that he was "tied up with a long distance telephone call" in his office.

Airport Group Wants to Build Wider Taxiway

Federal Funds Have Been Granted to Provide 50 Feet

The Outagamie County Board's airport committee agreed Friday to seek to have a 75-foot-wide taxiway constructed on the northwest-southeast runway instead of the 50-foot wide taxiway for which federal funds are being provided.

The county was notified two weeks ago that federal funds were approved to construct the 50-foot taxiway in the 1968 Federal Aviation Agency program. Along with those funds the county received reimbursement for land purchases made several years ago. The grant totaled $294,650.

Estimated costs of the 50-foot taxiway is $248,500. This could mean the county would not have to appropriate any additional funds for the project.

Need Taxiway

However, the airport committee felt the 75-foot taxiway would be needed in the future and it would be better to construct the full width now rather than having to add 25 feet at some later date.

Supv. John Dietz, Appleton, chairman, said it was estimated it would cost about $80,000 more for the full 75 foot width. The exact amount of additional funds that would be needed for 75 feet is not known at this time.

The existing taxiway on the northeast-southwest runway is 75 feet wide and airport committees felt this policy should be followed through for both runways.

The committee also will recommend that $2,000 be transferred from the airport's snow removal fund to the salary fund to hire part-time maintenance help this summer.

Soliciting Problems

Officials of the Avis and Hertz car rental agencies will be contacted by airport manager, Charles Olson, to settle problems in which have arisen over the two firms soliciting customers in the airport terminal.

Two months ago, the county leased space in the terminal to the Midwest Car Rental corporation and since that time Avis and Hertz also have been soliciting customers in the terminal although they do not rent space. Air Wisconsin officials have said their customers have complained about this solicitation.

The two rental agencies will be told they may put a sign in the terminal indicating that rental cars are available in the parking lot but no solicitation may take place within the terminal building.

Glass Fragments Hurt Child's Eye

Darrel Lefebvre, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lefebvre, 1762 Oneida St., Appleton, sustained a minor eye injury from glass fragments this week when the car driven by his mother appeared that he had to wait for the district attorney several times in past weeks before he could call his court calendar.

Schaefer in past instances of tardiness on the part of the district attorney has recessed several occasions, for between five and 10 minutes.

Greisch was in the courtroom at 2:25 p.m. Friday, five minutes before the recessed session — which ran to nearly 5 p.m.
